REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS Fairmount Indigo Planning Initiative

The Boston Redevelopment Authority (BRA) is issuing a Request for Proposals (RFP) for comprehensive planning of the Fairmount Indigo Corridor as part of the BRA-led Fairmount Indigo Planning Initiative. Building upon past and ongoing efforts of the Fairmount stakeholders and the MBTA, the City of Boston seeks to address the economic development and physical planning needs of the corridor and adjacent communities. The BRA planning process will be two-tiered and include the creation of a comprehensive Corridor-wide Plan in addition to the development of Improvement Plans at three critical Crossroad / Station Area locations along the Fairmount Indigo Corridor.

The BRA is requesting proposals from experienced multi-disciplinary Consultant Teams to conduct the planning process. The successful Consultant Team will have demonstrated excellence in the disciplines of:

- Economic Development
- Urban Design
- Identity and Branding
- Community Planning
- Transportation Systems
- Planning and Engineering
- Land Use
- Sustainable Development
- Market Analysis and Marketing

Expertise in public participation planning and community engagement is essential.

This Request for Proposals is available starting on Monday, February 6, 2012, from the Office of the Executive Secretary, Boston Redevelopment Authority, One City Hall Square, Room 910, Boston, MA 02201-1007, for a fee of One Hundred and Fifty dollars ($150.00). Checks should be made payable to the "Boston Redevelopment Authority."

A bidder's conference will be held at the Boston Redevelopment Authority on February 22, 2012 at 10:00 am in the BRA Board Room.

For questions on bidder's conference call, Jeremy Rosenberger at 617-918-4431 or email jeremy.rosenberger.bra@cityofboston.gov.

ALL RESPONSES TO THIS REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS MUST BE RETURNED NO LATER THAN 12:00 NOON ON THURSDAY, MARCH 22, 2012, TO:
